

EIGHT KILLED IN MYSTERY BLAST AT CHICAGO, ILL.

Five Buildings Are Wrecked
And Many Persons
Injured

L O W BRICK HOUSES

Windows Within Large Area
Are Smashed To Pieces

CHICAGO, Apr. 16 (I.N.S.)—Eight persons are known to have been killed and more than a score were injured in a mysterious explosion which wrecked five buildings on West Harrison street near Homan avenue early today. Four persons are missing and believed dead.

The wrecked building were low brick business houses with dwellings in the rear. Within ten minutes after the blast the entire block was in ruins, the screams of trapped victims rising from the debris.

All windows within a radius of three blocks were shattered by the terrific blast.

The known dead are:
Abraham Levine.
Rose Levine, his wife.
Albert Levine, 20, their son.
Leo Levine, 14, another son.
Albert Sokolski.
Sarah Sokolski, his wife.
Samuel, 15, their son.
Annie Sokolski, 14, their daughter.
Rose Sokolski, 16, a daughter.

Levine was a tailor and lived in an apartment in the rear of his shop. Sokolski operated a dry goods store in the rear of which he lived.

Numerous theories have been advanced as to the cause of the blast but so complete was the destruction of the buildings that authorities have been unable to determine its source. They say that a bomb, gas or a still could have caused the destruction.

EASTER WILL BE FITTINGLY COMMEMORATED IN BRISTOL AND OTHER NEARBY CHURCHES

"The Story of Easter," a Cantata, Will Be Feature in Program
At Presbyterian Church — Children to Assist With Programs in Other Churches

Easter, commemorating to Christians the Resurrection of the Saviour of mankind, and almost universally observed as a day and time of joy and feasting, is the oldest of all the festivals in the Christian Calendar. Easter signifies the formal dawn of spring. Winter is at an end, the trees and flowers, stirring from their slumbers and throwing off their coverlets of snow, put forth bud and blossom; there is balm in the air. It is the real awakening of the new year.

Church choirs throughout Bristol and the surrounding communities have been preparing for the Easter-tide in arranging for the presentation of special musical numbers, both vocal and instrumental. And the children of the Sabbath Schools will play a large part in the bringing of the Easter message, through songs and recitations.

The pastor, Rev. George Moulten, will deliver the Easter sermon, "He Is Not Here, He Is Risen," at the Harrison M. E. Church, tomorrow at 11 o'clock. Sunday School will be held at 10 a. m. and throughout the services of the day there will be special Easter music.

In the afternoon the pastor wishes to meet all the men of the official board and the trustees of the church at the church building.

The Sunday School will be in charge of the evening service at 7.45, when the following program will be given:
Primary song; responsive reading; prayer; psalm; "The Garden of Victory"; "The Garden of Glory," "A Light Across the Lilies," "Wonderful Tidings of Easter," "Flowers of His Grace," "Risen," will be the songs rendered during the course of the program; and Miss Dorothy Barnhill will sing "Go and Tell" as a solo.

The following persons will impersonate the characters given: Spirit of the Garden, Frances Flag; Victory, Constance Bartlam; Hope, Mildred Cahall; Unbelief, Catharine Barr; Sorrow, Catherine Rhodes; Fear, Evelyn Bentley; Love, Olive Whyatt; Memory, Doris Plum; Mary, Doris Wilkinson; Easter Angel, Leato Julian; Rose girls, Irene Ranck, Violet Ranck, Edith Cochran, Dorothy Rhodes, Ruth Gentleman; Bernice Emery; Flower Buds, Margaret Wilkinson, Florence Perkins; Donna Rae Tricky, Bernice Julian; Easter Messengers, B. G. Borchers, Evelyn Flagg, Eleanor Dalmedo, Florence Sauers, Charlotte Minster.

An Easter message "Looking at the Empty Tomb" will be delivered by the Rev. John Ellery, pastor of the Methodist Church here tomorrow at 10.30 a. m. The organ prelude by Mrs. Alfred J. Rogers will be "Christ Is Risen," and the anthems by the choir, "Hallelujah, Christ Is Risen" and "They Have Taken Away My Lord" (C. Harold Lowden). Mrs. Frank Parr and Miss Verna Miller rendering a duet, and Mrs. Parr a solo, in the latter.

selection. A vocal solo will also be rendered by Mrs. Frank Parr, "Open the Gates of the Temple," and another anthem by the choir, "The Lord Is Risen Indeed" (Lerman).

The Sunday School will be in charge of the evening service with the Junior Choir participating in the processional. The anthem by the choir at this service will be "Christ Is Risen" (J. C. Warhurst.)

The Zion Lutheran Church, of which the Rev. P. R. Ronge, is pastor announces the following services for tomorrow: Sunrise service, 6 o'clock, with administration of the Lord's Supper; Sunday School 10 a. m.; morning worship, 11 o'clock, with communion, baptism and confirmation; evening worship, 7.45, with exercises by the primary and adult Sunday School. Special anthems will be given by the choir at each service.

The Bristol Presbyterian Sunday School will meet as usual at 10 o'clock Easter Sunday morning. At 10.30 the session will meet in the church study to receive members by letter or on confession of faith. At 11 a. m. the sacraments of the Lord's Supper and infant baptism will be administered. There will also be the public reception of members in connection with this communion service.

At 7.45 p. m. there will be an Easter cantata by the choir in place of the usual sermon. The title of this cantata is "The Story of Easter" by R. M. Stults. It is a beautiful musical rendition of the Resurrection of Christ. The story of the Resurrection is always a soul stirring theme—but is most appealing in song and music. The story is very vividly and beautifully told in these selections. It is divided into three parts. The first part deals with the events foreshadowing the Resurrection.

In the second part the facts connected with the finding of the empty tomb are given. Then in part three, with a series of soul stirring selections, the glory of the Risen Christ is very impressively portrayed. The whole cantata is a remarkable presentation of the Resurrection theme and will fully repay those who come to hear it.

Prelude, "Nearer My God, to Thee" (Ashford) (by request); offertory, "Easter Triumph" (Ashford), and postlude, "Easter" (Stults), will be given by Mrs. M. D. Weagley, organist, at the evening service. T. H. Snelson, leader, will direct the numbers of "The Story of Easter."

The selections will be given by the following soloists: Mrs. C. I. Bowen, soprano; Mrs. A. Yokel, soprano; Mrs. Ida McElmoyl, contralto; Melvin Johnson, tenor; George Bischoff, bass, assisted by a choir of 25 voices.

Part one—Introduction, organ, Mrs. M. D. Weagley; opening chorus, "Hail, Glorious Day," choir; bass solo, "I Will Extol Thee, O Lord," George (Continued on Page 2)

FIRE PREVENTION ALSO DISEASE PREVENTION

Now Is the Time to Get Rid Of All Rubbish And Debris

SAFEGUARDS HEALTH

"Bristol a Fireless Town"—that is the slogan which is to guide residents here during the week beginning April 24th. Every nook and corner of every residence and building is to be cleaned of all accumulation of debris. Cellars are to be cleaned, attics cleaned and every precaution taken to prevent fires.

All debris is to be placed in receptacles along the curb line for collection by the authorized collector on the days which he regularly visits the various sections of the borough. You do not have to wait until April 24th to start this clean-up but you can begin it right now.

Not only does accumulated rubbish and debris lead to the origin of fires, but it is also disease breeding. The Department of Health says:

"Prevention is the keynote of modern medicine. It is the greatest weapon against disease. Unsanitary surroundings and illness are close associates. Germs and flies thrive on filth. It will not be long until the arch-enemy of the infant—the germ-laden fly, again makes its appearance. Careless back yards and unclean conditions in the home itself invite this enemy to do damage to your baby by giving it hospitable surroundings. Infants are not in a position to offer any resistance to the fly. Grown-ups must do this for them.

"While Clean-Up Week will materially aid in making your home and its surroundings more attractive, if properly observed it will also root germs and the death-dealing fly. Get busy!"

BRISTOL MAN HURT WHEN AUTOS CRASH

Accident Occurred on Bristol
Pike Near Wheatheaf
Bridge

ONE IS UNDER ARREST

Continued improvement in the condition of Henry Leighton, of Oak Lane, Philadelphia, who was injured when an automobile in which he was riding overturned at Wheatheaf on the Morrisville-Bristol Pike Thursday night, was reported at St. Francis Hospital, Trenton, N. J., today. One of his companions, Sebastian Pond, Bristol aviator, is in the Morrisville jail, while two other occupants of the car vanished.

Pond, it is said, was being taken to the Trenton hospital to receive treatment for minor injuries when he became enraged at the sight of Officer George Rose who stopped the car to investigate. When Rose remonstrated he was attacked by Pond, and other policemen were called. He was taken to the Morrisville police station where he was fined $10 at a hearing held this morning.

Leighton is suffering from cuts and bruises about the head and body. The car is said to have sideswiped another machine, swerving into the canal bridge rail at Wheatheaf and tearing down one section of the guard rail. Officers Cooper and Burns of the Morrisville police are continuing their investigation today.

Before the car could be moved, three other machines crashed into the wreckage. W. S. Horsnell, of 23 West Hanover street, saw his peril as he came near the bridge, and in turning, collided with the car of Nathan Popkin, of 525 North Clinton avenue, Trenton, N. J. A car owned by Judson C. Burns, of Philadelphia, crashed into Popkin's machine, a few minutes later.

GIRL MISSING FROM PRIVATE SCHOOL; HINT FOUL PLAY

Lass, 16, Disappears From Wood's Girls' School At Langhorne

PARENTS ARE ALARMED

Others Blame Disappearance
On Lonesomeness Because Of Holidays

LANGHORNE, Apr. 16.—Police of three States are searching for Helen Saks, 16 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Saks, of 114th street, Richmond Hill, Long Island, who mysteriously disappeared Thursday morning between 8 and 9 o'clock from the fashionable Woods Girls' School, Langhorne.

Officials of the school attribute the girl's absence to lonesomeness, saying no plans had been made for her to return home for the Easter holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Saks discredit this theory. They fear that the girl has met with foul play.

Notified of their daughter's disappearance, the parents arrived in Langhorne yesterday and a search was begun. Together with Troopers Gowan and Simmons, the father worked all of yesterday in trying to establish clues of the girl's whereabouts, but no trace of her was found. Mr. and Mrs. Saks returned to New York last evening greatly distressed.

The first intimation of any such action to be taken by the girl was made Wednesday evening when she is said to have broken the rules of the school by leaving without permission to go on an errand downtown. She called at the Morris Store and tried to borrow some money on two diamond rings. As no cash seemed to be forthcoming she spent much time in bargaining, but to no avail. Missed shortly after she had left the school, a search was immediately started and officials found her at the store. She returned to the school and retired for the night without giving reason for her desire for the money.

After breakfasting Thursday with the few other girls remaining during the Easter season, Miss Saks went to the sun porch. Miss Hays, principal of the school, came to the girl and asked her to go to another part of the building for one of the other students. From that moment she has not been seen. Police of Philadelphia, Trenton, and New York, as well as State Troopers were advised and are searching for her.

Miss Saks is described as being pretty, 16 years of age, weighing 127 pounds; four feet, 10½ inches tall; with bleached white bobbed hair, blue eyes, and light complexion. When she left the school she was wearing a brown coat with squirrel collar, brown dress, low tan shoes and light stockings.

Gorgeously displayed are the different kinds of Easter footwear at the Mill street store of Abe Popkin. Popular colors are stroller tan, parchment, rose blush, stone grey; and sheer chiffon hosiery may be had to match.

TRADE NOTES

At Steinberg's novelty dress goods store, 213 Mill street, a number of specials are announced for today. The list includes ladies' sateen princess slips, night gowns, underwear, and stockings; as well as children's Easter outfits.

A special Easter Sunday dinner is advertised by Townsend's restaurant, located on Mill street at the highway. A choice may be had of duck, chicken, prime ribs of beef, sirloin steak, or roast lamb; and the remainder of the menu is likewise most tempting. The dinner will be served between the hours of 1 and 8 p. m.

A free souvenir will be given away at the Bristol Bargain Store to all patrons at the opening today. A number of specials are announced by J. Bernard, proprietor, for this week-end.

At the Blue Bell Lunch, Bath street, chicken dinners will be served tomorrow, and a special Easter banana-custard ice cream may also be had for dessert. The food served is certain to measure up to the well-prepared menu offered on previous special occasions.

EASTER

Easter comes at a glad season of the year. The festival itself, is both commemorative of the resurrection of Jesus Christ and as a memorial to the atonement wrought by the death of the Master upon the cross.

It is hailed with great acclaim
in all the Christian churches of the world. In Greek and Latin and in the languages derived from them, Easter was known as
"Pascha," "Pasch," "Pasqua,"
"Pasqua," "Pasques," etc., from the Chaldee word, "Pascha," the equivalent of the Hebrew "Pesach." The "Destroying Angels" act is recalled by the last name in "passing over" the households of the Hebrews when he smote the Egyptians, as disclosed in the twelfth chapter of Exodus.

This year Easter will fall on April 17. The way by which Easter is determined is that of the first Sunday after the paschal full moon—the fourteenth day of the calendar moon, or the full moon which happens upon or next after March 21; and if the full moon happens on a Sunday,
then Easter Day is the first Sunday following.

As usual, Bristol churches will observe Easter with elaborate programs. It is an event that the children and the grown-ups have learned to look forward to with much pleasurable anticipation; it is an event all should remember with some beautiful thought for the day.

GARDEN TIME

Poets and philosophers tell of the satisfaction obtained from cultivation of flower and vegetable gardens, but the practice is not as general as could be wished.
In many places there is much less gardening than there was some years ago. People have too many things they want to do with their spare time.

In many cities and towns, however, the garden movement has been pushed as a community proposition. People have been urged, in a systematic way, to decorate their grounds with handsome shrubbery and flowers, and some of these communities have developed an amazing amount of this beautification.

Such towns become noted, and every minute of time put in on those flower beds is no doubt paid for in the higher value of real estate that is established in such a town.

Home pride is the motive that can best be relied upon to promote the gardening movement.
People will usually do what their neighbors do. If you persuade one or two influential families on a street to spend a little more time and money beautifying their places this season, the majority of their neighbors would, within a year or two, fall into line and do the same thing.

As respects vegetables, the advantage of the back yard garden ought to be obvious in these times of high prices. The children of the modern community do not have enough share in the home tasks, and it would do them good to have some regular labors in a garden and they could well do a good deal of its work. But the old folks cannot expect them thus to labor unless they also are willing to do some stunts with the spade and hoe.

REJOICE in the Lord always, and again I say, rejoice!" St. Paul's words will find glad echo on Easter Sunday; for millions will come from out the tombs of passion, pride, doubt or despair into the sunlight of a new morning.

As Christ triumphed over death, so our faith will conquer temptations and trials. We will come closer to Christ; we will hear His message proclaimed from our pulpits; and we will realize anew the spiritual benefits of church attendance on Easter Sunday and every Sunday. When all denominations teach the glory of God, what matters it where we attend church, AS LONG AS WE ATTEND? So in whatever Bristol Church we worship this year, the Easter lilies will be taken from the altar and transplanted into the hearts of men, there to bloom permanently.
